

REIC PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT DAY

Ozzie Jurock, FRI

David Podmore, FRI

Ian Smith

On Friday May 30, REIC Members had an opportunity to hear three interesting and thought provoking presentations as part of the REIC Professional Development Day. Ozzie Jurock, FRI opened the sessions with a presentation on Global Real Estate Trends that had attendees thoroughly entertained. David Podmore, FRI followed with insight on the 2010 Vancouver Winter Olympics and Ian Smith finished the Professional Development Sessions with his take on the Green Initiative in South East False Creek.

In the afternoon attendees had a first hand opportunity to explore historic Granville Island which houses some of the most interesting shops and views in downtown Vancouver.
